

First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ)

Selma, California

Anthony Imperatrice was born in Fresno California and has lived and worked in Fresno his entire life. Tony began his musical studies at the piano through the Yamaha music program. As a teenager, Tony became fascinated with the organ and he quickly made the transition. At 16 years old Tony got his first professional experience as an organist for the Fresno Falcons hockey team and as organist for Our Lady of Victory church. Tony spent the next 30 years as a church organist. He also worked at Pizza-n-Pipes and has played in several bands. Today, Tony works part time as a church organist at the First Christian Church in Selma CA. Tony is available for concerts, lectures and workshops, and is a representative for the Rodgers Organ Co. Tony has been married for 24 happy years to artist Aileen Imperatrice.

Come join us in worshipping
God's Presence!

(Childcare is available)

Sundays @ 10:30 am --
Traditional Worship Service
Blend of Traditional and Contemporary Music

2nd & 4th Thursdays @ 6:30 pm -- "Worship Replay"
Modern Worship Service with Contemporary-focused Music